Miss Seminole High School

Program Explanation

(Keep for your information)

The Miss SHS program is sponsored by the PTSA to select a young woman to represent Seminole High School, its students and faculty to the larger community off campus. Miss SHS showcases young women from across the entire campus community and recognizes their achievements and hard work.

Each competitor has been nominated by a campus organization as its most outstanding young woman. Nominees must be a junior or a senior girl with an overall GPA of at least 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. Points are awarded on the basis of

Accomplishments	10 points
Essay	30 points
Interview	30 points
Talent	30 points

Miss SHS serves as the school's student hostess at events and meetings scheduled on campus and also escorts visitors (ranging from Business Partners to parents of prospective students) on tours of Seminole High. Miss SHS serves on various student advisory committees and represents the students at meetings, ceremonies and to the public in general.

The PTSA's objectives in sponsoring the Miss SHS Competition are:

1. To recognize Seminole High School's outstanding young women.
2. To provide an opportunity for the school's outstanding young women to gain poise, polish and experience; and to grow in self-confidence and self-esteem.
3. To motivate campus involvement, service and GPA achievement.
4. To generate good publicity and an improved public image for Seminole High.
5. To name a campus hostess from among the students.
6. To provide an opportunity for parents to work for the overall good of the school and its students (beyond focusing on their own child.)
